

VHA300 Dimming Operating Instructions

1. Connect VHA300

Before setting VHA300, please use laptop, smart phones, IPAD and other terminal devices to connect VHA300

- Wireless SSID (wireless name) factory values defaults: VHA300_MAC last six data.
- Wireless factory password defaults: 12345678.

Tips:

- (1) When use computer wireless connection to connect VHA300, please turn off the computer's local connection.
- (2) When use computer wired connection to connect VHA300, please turn off the computer's wireless network.
- (4) Set your computer to automatically obtain IP address.

2. Configure VHA300

1) Open a browser, enter the domain name: <http://vonets.cfg> to enter the configuration interface.

2) Super-user access to web pages that can be configured GPIO.

Super-user SSID: root

Password: vonetspl

3) Enter the configuration interface to configure GPIO, the user can view the state of the lamp according to the configurable GPIO contents.

4) VHA300 currently with two inputs, two outputs.

(1) After entering the ON / OFF switch input, along with pressing movements, lights on or off.

(2) After binding pwn:

a) Select the loop dimming, lamp brightness changes.

b) Choose rise dimming, after the brightest lights, and then enter, lights unchanged.

c) Select the drop dimming lights dimmed, and then pressed, lamp status unchanged.

d) select switch dimming, the lights status flip with button.

Tips:

1.VHA300 with 3 buttons:

(1) the reset button: long press for reset, single press for power on or shut down.

(2) 02 key: the corresponding GPI_2 of configuration interface .

(3) 16 key: the corresponding GPI_16 of configuration interface.

2. GPI input setting, GPI_2 or GPI_16 either simultaneously bind GPO_18 and GPO_19, or not binding, which can not only bind one.

VONETS.COM